

Mind Inspiration.

Part 3 – Journey.

Many people secretly dream about achieving big things in life and jumping into the quadrant of Achievers.

But how to make it happen?

Most people dream about becoming, having, or doing BIG things in life

From Homeless To President?

Imagine a homeless person. What's going on through your mind now?

I am yet to find a person who would say: "I am so proud of this homeless guy. He is incredible!".

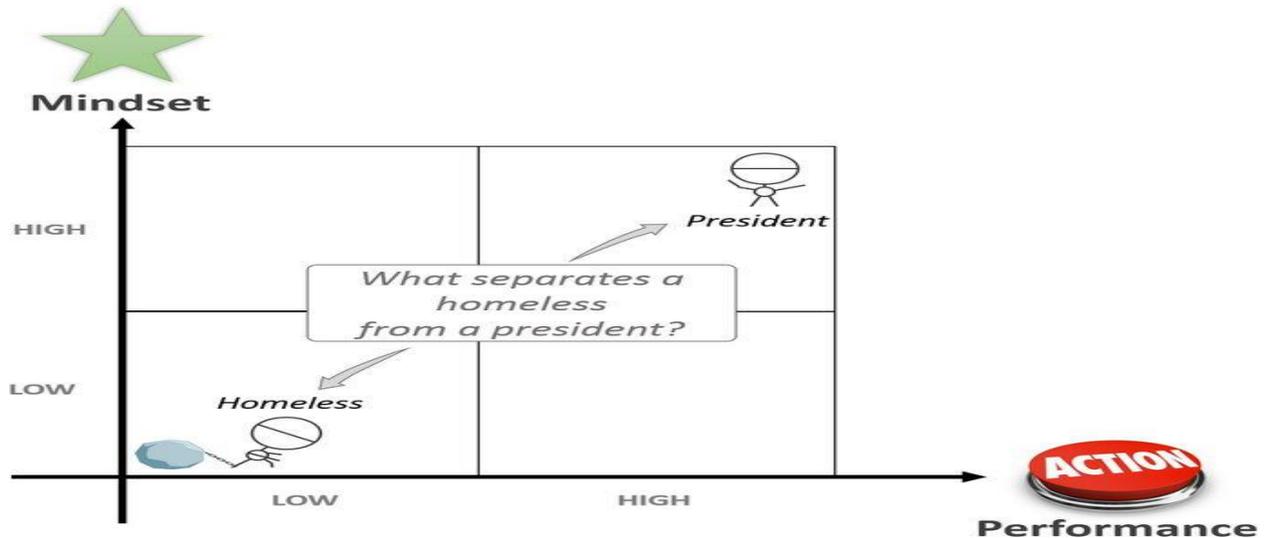

Now, imagine a favourite leader/success story of someone you admire.

Doesn't have to be active.

Doesn't have to be alive.

It doesn't even have to be a president.

Just think about someone extremely famous who you and many other people respect a lot.

Contrast the 2 pictures in your mind and answer this question:

"Do you consider yourself as someone who has more blessings in life than a homeless person?"

Do you believe this homeless person can do better in life by just finding a simple job instead of begging?

Shift the focus to your favourite famous person (president, executive, actress/actor, athlete, business magnate).

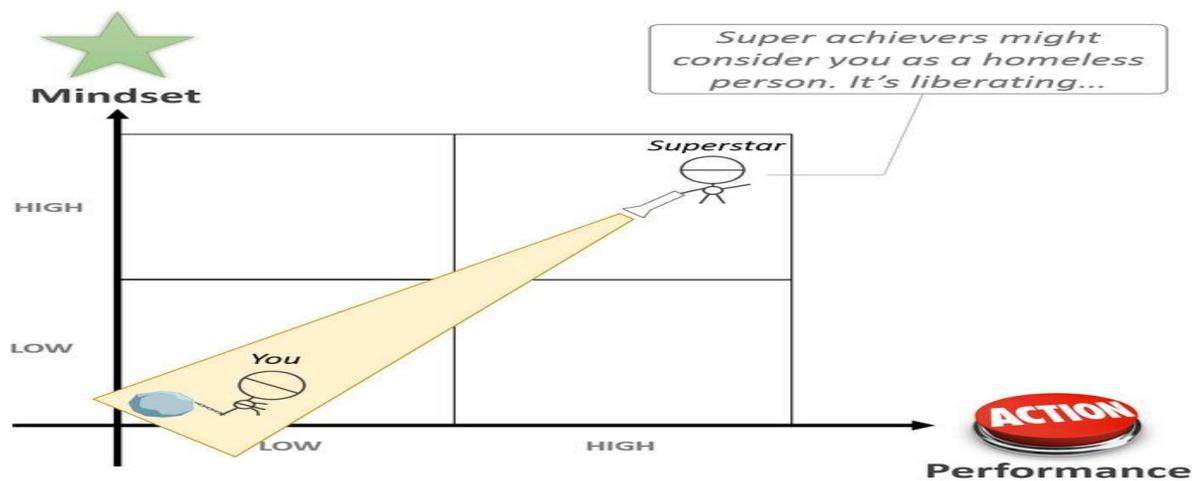

The shocking truth is that this person may consider you as a homeless person, relatively speaking.

Do you believe this super star thinks you can do better in life by simply taking the steps that you don't necessarily see now due to the lack of awareness?

Are you a homeless person in someone else's mind?

And they know you can turn it upside down because they have done it.

They operate at a different level. They can easily see what you don't yet.

Liberating, isn't it? Or is It.

Most people are aware that they can do different and maybe better, but just lack something.

So, what do these super achievers know that most of us don't?

The Secret To Breaking Through. Is really no secret.

If you truly want to live life on your terms you have got to understand this simple principle.

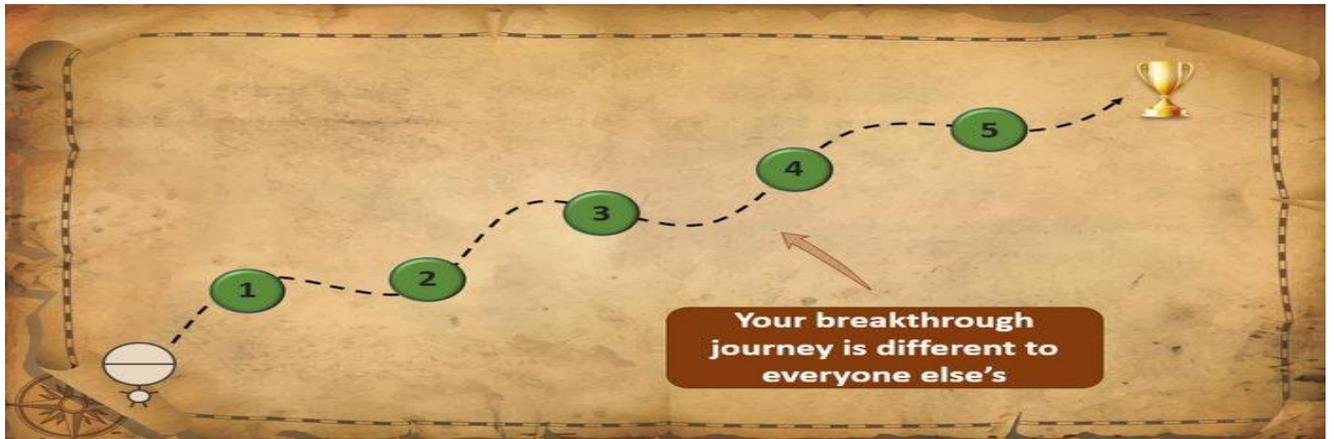

You have to design your own journey, not follow someone else's path.

The truth is, we are all different and there is no standard recipe that works for everyone to break through in life.

The Journey of Becoming needs to be tailed to your story.

You have lived your life by the story you tell yourself.

We will teach you how to rewrite your future self story.

Discover the breakthrough system that will work for you

The good news is, there is a system that can help you.

It's always been there. It's just that you haven't discovered it yet.

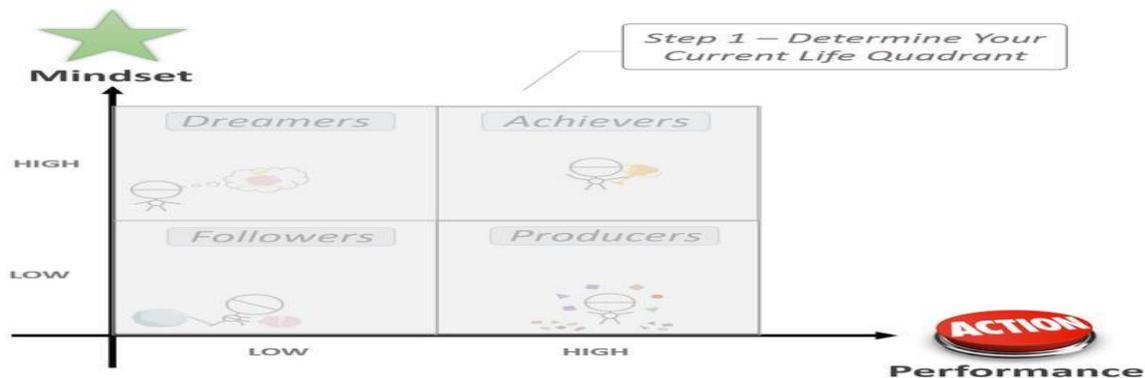

Or you haven't understood it fully yet. Yet. This 'yet' is so important.

OK, let's see what we can do to chisel this step-by-step system that will work specifically for you.

Step 1 - Determine Your Life Quadrant.

If you haven't discovered the 4 Life Quadrants yet, it's time to do it now because you need to know where you are right now to determine the starting point and direction.

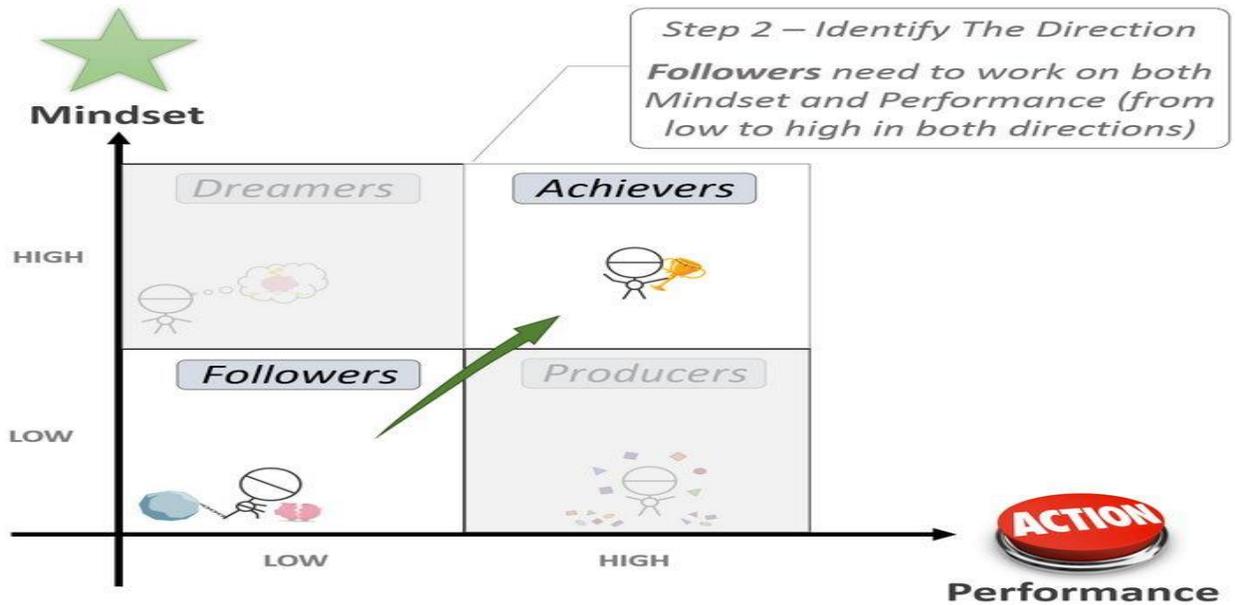

Be honest with yourself.

Step 2 - Plot The Direction Of The Journey.

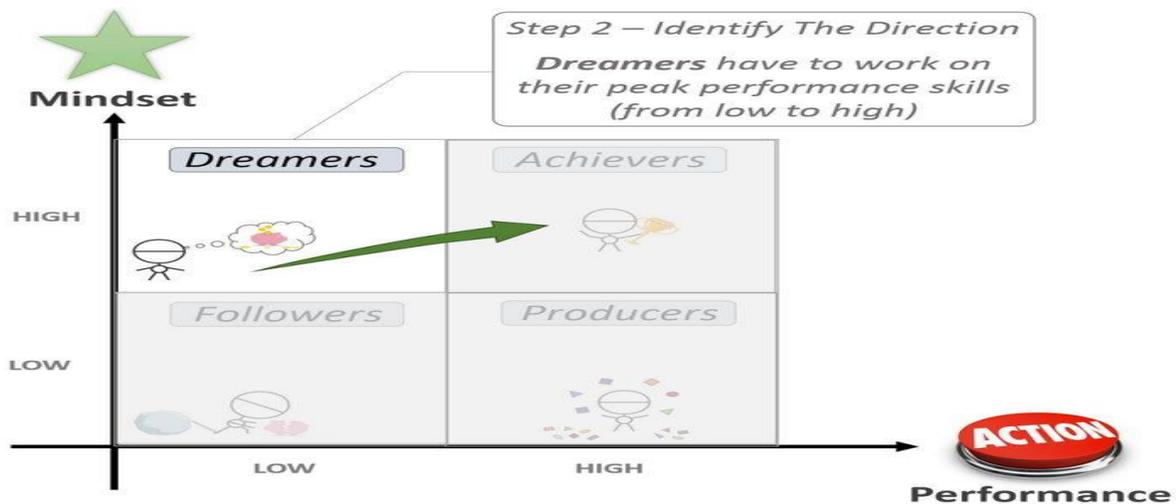

Next, sketch the direction. Which way are you going?

Diagonally across all the way from Followers To Achievers?

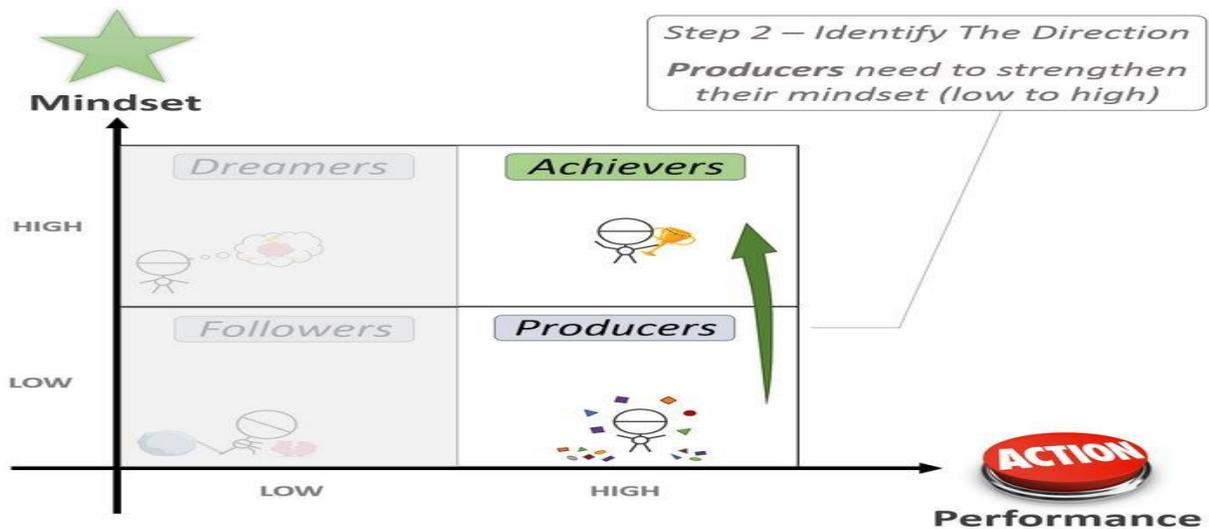

If you are a Dreamer though, the direction will be different.

Improving your peak performance skills (moving from left to right in the performance axis) is of highest possible value as illustrated below. I was here for a period of time.

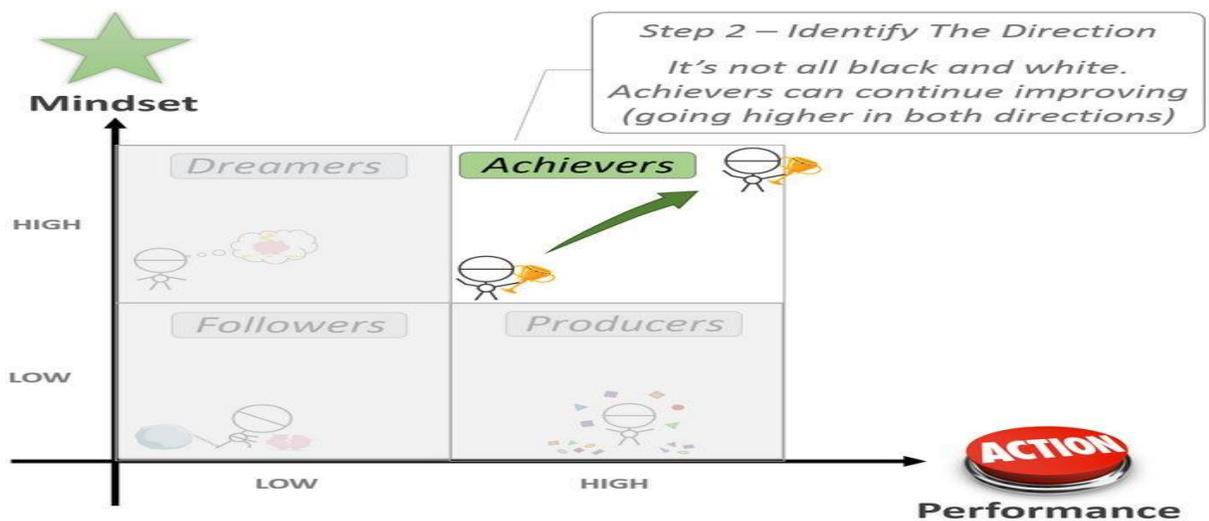

The journey is totally different for Producers. It's crucial for them to become open-minded when it comes to believing in mindset development techniques and systems.

They have to take a leap of faith and start using their imagination to full extent, setting huge goals, creating morning rituals for charging their days and taking other important steps moving them all the way up to the right-hand side corner of the Achievers quadrant.

Let's not forget about Achievers.

Because even if you are not from that category already you will be there one day if you are determined.

Remember wherever you are, you can continue climbing in the direction of your choice gradually moving higher and higher in both directions until you cross the border and live the life you won't regret living.

Step 3 - Introduce a System.

The reality is this transformation journey is not a "get-rich-quick" scheme.

It will take time. And you will feel like you want to give up. And it will hurt at times.

But you will enjoy it, as long as you manage to introduce a system that will help you transform the right way.

Using the process in the Journey Of Becoming, will give you the support you need.

Your empathetic witness.

Your accountability partners.

That is why the final step is so crucial. You have got to find a system that is:

Tailored for your transformation journey.

Actionable & step-by-step to avoid frustration and procrastination.

Engaging and interesting to use so you are keen to use it over and over again (repetition is the key).

Effective & efficient so you spend least amount of time on it but still deliver results fast.

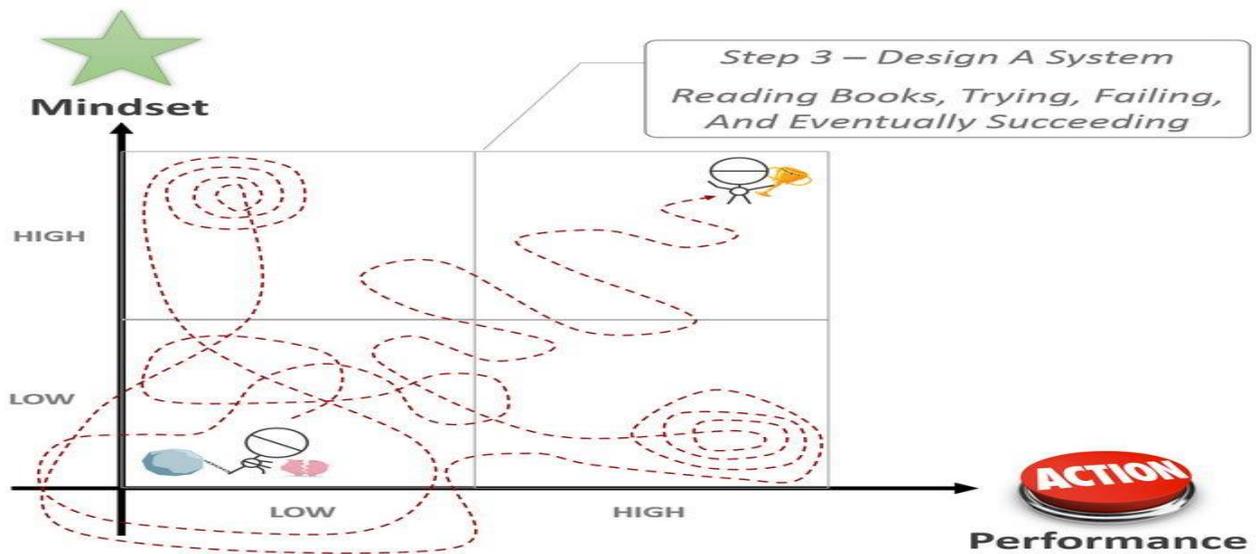

Extremely easy to repeat & recap ideally with summary infographics so you can recap in seconds and minutes, instead of days and weeks).

And you have 2 options only.

Either design a system by trial-and-error spending dozens of years of your time, reading books, analyzing, digesting, trying, failing, and finally succeeding, and I will tell you that was me.

The resource Centre has both options

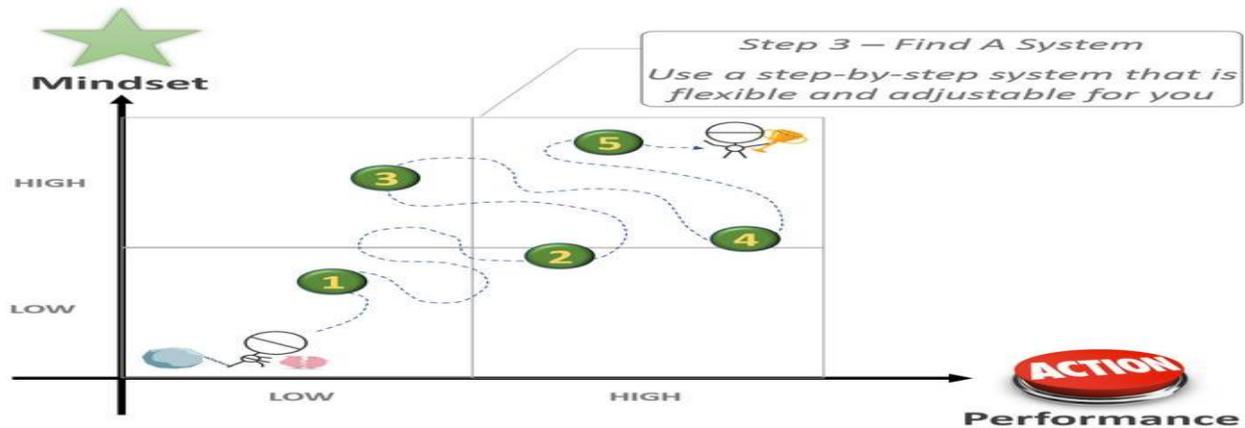

-OR-....

Option 1 - Design a system yourself (time consuming).

... Find an existing proven system that will work specifically for you.

Use it consistently and systematically, make tiny adjustments where necessary and enjoy saving dozens of years of your life building your success on the shoulders of giants as they say.

Option 2 - Find a system that will work for you.

One way or another, you will have to make it happen.

To enjoy living this life to full extent you have to get out there and inject a highly actionable and engaging system into your life to enjoy progressing towards the lifestyle of your dreams.

Whether you start with a mindset development system, or a peak performance system depends on which life quadrant you are in right now as explained earlier.

“The plug.”

When I was investigating and looking for my solution, I was first looking at the “guru” offered solutions. You know what I mean.

What I really desired was a program that was based on the success of “everyday people”, with stories to show.

I love the “gurus” for the energy time and professionalism they dedicate to the business of personal growth. I also needed a way to make an income.

(a plug for my business model).
